

“

Australia's history defies a homogenous narrative

...yet, the fallacy of homogeneity still informs how our systems and institutions operate, and fails to reflect this rich, true identity of the peoples of this nation.

”

1700s

Muslim traders engaged with the Yolngu people as early as 1700

1788

Jews and Africans arrived with the First Fleet

1830s

migrants from Egypt, Iran, Turkey, and South Asia arrived in the 1830s

1850s

Chinese migration surged in the 1850s

Quote by Giridharan Sivaraman, Australia's Race Discrimination Commissioner (2024)

Together
For Humanity

www.togetherforhumanity.org.au